Dear Member,

It is hard to believe that the Annual Conference is almost here! I cannot wait to welcome you to Boston in a few short weeks. I am very grateful for the time, energy, and effort that our HQ staff, committed volunteers, and the Northeastern University planning team have dedicated to this event.

Our Know Before You Go webpage contains lots of information you will need as you plan your arrival to Boston, including details about lodging for those of you staying on campus. We're also excited to announce our Education Sessions and the launch of the WHOVA app. We encourage you to download this app, as it will be one of the best ways to stay connected and updated throughout the conference.

Enjoy a smooth start to July and safe travels to Boston. I look forward to connecting with you when we gather soon.

Stronger Together,

Liam McCartney (he/him/his)
President-Elect, International ACAC
Associate Director of International Admissions, Boston University
