Dear International ACAC Members,

After an energetic and eventful site visit in Boston at the end of last month, I am getting amped for the annual conference in July! The team at Northeastern and our International ACAC Staff are working hard to ensure that this conference is exciting for one and all.

A quick reminder, Early Bird Registration ends next week, so take advantage of that deadline while you still can! On-Campus housing and our hotel blocks still have availability, and details can be found below.

This month's Conference Update is jam-packed with other information to help you make the most of your time in Boston. You'll find instructions on how to submit a topic for our "Chatter that Matters" sessions and the launch of sign-ups for many of our 2025 Conference Special Events.

Wishing you all the best, and looking forward to connecting soon.

Best wishes,
Liam McCartney (he/him/his)
President-Elect, International ACAC
Associate Director of International Admissions, Boston University
