

INTERNATIONAL ACAC 2026

Carnegie
Mellon
University

 University of Pittsburgh

Guidelines to Hosting an Off-Campus Event

With a large group of like-minded professionals in one area of the world, there are many reasons for your organization to host an event during the International ACAC Annual Conference. We ask that you follow the guidelines below when considering hosting an event in Pittsburgh that corresponds with the dates and location of the International ACAC Conference.

1. Refer to the 2026 Conference Schedule when planning your event. Please plan events to start after official conference programming.
  - a. The conference begins on Tuesday, but many people will arrive in Pittsburgh early. Kindly consider hosting your event on Monday, July 13.
  - b. Otherwise, please consider having your event begin after official conference programming ends on that day.

Tuesday, July 14: 8:00 PM

Wednesday, July 15: 9:00 PM

2. Consider local laws around public alcohol consumption if your event will offer alcoholic beverages.
3. Please consider the location of your event and proximity to campus.
The campus address is: 3959 Fifth Ave, Pittsburgh, PA 15260
4. Please inform International ACAC about your event at Admin@InternationalACAC.org. Your event details will be kept confidential as the information is for our awareness.

